"An extremely musical ensemble...truly excellent players ...showing a real commitment to chamber music at the highest level." (Martin Lovett, Amadeus Quartet.)

Formed in Cambridge in 2000, the Lawson Trio pursues a busy concert schedule, bringing a wide range of traditional and contemporary Piano Trio music to audiences of all ages. Recent British venues have included the South Bank Centre, Chester Summer Festival, the Lake District Summer Music Festival and Queen's University Belfast, while concerts abroad have taken them to Germany and Finland.
